

MEMORIAL DAY

The nation pauses for the holiday that brings the unofficial start of summer. Amid picnics and swimming, many will take time to remember loved ones and those who have sacrificed in the armed forces.

Lake Fong/Post-Gazette

Mary Ann and George Bigelow and other neighbors have been trying to restore Duncan Heights Cemetery in McCandless, where gravestones have been knocked over and trees and brush have overgrown many veterans' final resting places.